

home1

Welcome to our website

Strive (Overseas) Ltd is the charitable arm of Daily Bread Co-operative Ltd which is a Christian Workers Co-operative company selling Wholefoods from its stores in Northampton and Cambridge. Strive has been serving the charity community since the late 1950's. We specialise in Helping to fund the work of other charitable organisations as they seek to help people in developing regions of the world.

At this site, you will discover all about our company, as well as our history in the field. Feel free to browse around this site. If you have comments or questions about us, or simply need more information and want to contact us, click on the contact button on any page within this site.

Thanks for visiting and we look forward to hearing from you.